

PATEL MEMORIAL NATIONAL COLLEGE, RAJPURA

Department of Police Administration

The deeper knowledge of this subject enables the students to prepare themselves for the competitive exams of PPSC, Judiciary and other State level exams.

Overall scope of Police Administration mean learning objectives of the department and to create ability among students to:-

- # Clarify the duties of police.
- # To provide advanced study of police administration.
- # to study police public relationships.
- # To analyze the recommendations of various committees and commissions constituted by government on the police reforms.
- # To examine the issues and problems in the implementation of police reforms.
- # To suggest measures for effective implementation of police reforms in India.

B.A.1

Under this course of Police Administration students will get the knowledge of concept role and significance of police and they can also get knowledge about working of many agencies like as union ministry of home affairs, working of CBI, IB and bureau of Police Research and Development, origin structure and working of central armed police forces. Students also get information of police at district level and Station level. They are provided knowledge about Indian constitution, powers of President, P.M,Supreme Court etc.

B.A. 2

Students are taught about the significance of Police Personnel Administration in India, Carrier system in police administration, methods of recruitment, training and promotion of police personnel. They also learn about the nature and scope of law and order administration.

B.A. 3

Under the curriculum of third year, Students get the knowledge of concepts, nature and significance of organizational behavior. This course also provides the basic knowledge of Indian penal code 1860: main provisions jurisdictions, General explanations, punishments, Criminal Conspiracy, offences:- Bailable and non-Bailable offences , Cognizance and non – cognizable offences, Summons case, warrant case, duties of public prosecutor etc.